

In this month's newsletter, we begin by discussing the top 10 facts about account based income streams. Our animation illustrates the finer details of working in retirement, whether it be casual or part-time work. 'It'll be right' or 'bulletproof' is a mindset held by some of us, especially regarding our health; we unpack key findings into the prevalence, incidence, risk and cost burden of ill health in Australia. Given the current environment, the relationship between monetary policy, cash rates and interest rates continues to be in focus; we take a look at what this relationship means for borrowers, savers and investors (retirees). Lastly, we leave you with an insightful video, in which Dr. M. Sanjayan, a global conservation scientist, explores the problems of business and household food waste, and some solutions to them.
