

Most of us would have preferred 2023 to look a bit different. The continued hike in the cost of living, soaring interest rates and global uncertainty aren't showing any signs of slowing just yet.

But fear not. This month, we have some tips to help you stay resilient while we ride out a period of turbulence, and we bring you a super simple animation on inflation risk, something to be more aware of right now.

While you may be focused on the here and now, it's just as important to keep your future finances in sight. Learn why you may need to check in on your Will, and any insurance you have through super.

If you have family members that need to consider the prospect of Aged Care in the future, Louise Biti from Aged Care Steps shares insights on diffusing the fears around aged care and creating a smoother and less daunting transition into this next phase of life.

And, if you're sandwiched between looking after parents, kids and / or grandkids, we've got some tips to help you balance your commitment to your loved ones, and yourself.

Enjoy the edition.
